CSU-Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation

Application Form (Page 2)

Name _____

The California State University Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (CSU-LSAMP) is an academic support program jointly supported by the National Science Foundation (Grant No HRD-0802628) and the California State University.

The goal of CSU-LSAMP is to broaden participation in science, mathematics, engineering and technology (STEM) disciplines and contribute to the national agenda to increase the number of underrepresented minority students receiving baccalaureate degrees in STEM disciplines. A student is eligible to participate in CSU-LSAMP if he/she is a member of a group that has been traditionally underrepresented in higher education or faces social, cultural, educational, or economic barriers to careers in STEM.

Disclosure Statement: In order to evaluate the effectiveness of CSU-LSAMP, the program is required to report individual student data (SSN, ethnicity, GPA and enrollment status) to the NSF. By participating in CSU-LSAMP I authorize the release of individual student data to CSU-LSAMP. I understand that this information is to be used solely for evaluating the impact and effectiveness of the CSU-LSAMP program and that individual data will not be released to parties other than those directly involved with the program.

Please answer the following two questions (you may be brief):

Describe any cultural, social, or economic barriers you faced in your pursuit of higher education:

Describe how your participation in CSU-LSAMP will contribute to the program's goals.
