Syllabus: We will cover Chapters 0-5.

Class Website: The address for this class is http://math.sfsu.edu/schuster/110fall2008sec7.html

Attendance: Attendance will not be taken, but you are responsible for all announcements made in class and for all material covered in class. Please avoid late arrivals and early departures.

Examinations: There will be two in-class tests and one final exam.

First test: Thursday, October 2.
Second test: Thursday, November 6.
Final exam: Tuesday, December 16, 8:00-10:30.

There will be no make-up exams for any of the exams. Missing an exam results in a 0 grade for that exam. The only exception is verified serious illness or accident.

Homework: Homework will be assigned on a weekly basis.

Course Grade: The final exam is worth 35%, each in-class test is worth 20%, and the homework is worth 25%.

The grade distribution is as follows: A (90%-100%), B (80%-89%), C (70%-79%), D (60%-69%), F (0%-59%).

Deadlines: For deadlines see the class website.

On-line Component: The homework for this class will be done on-line. The website for the online component is http://www.webassign.net If you bought a new textbook, the access code will come with the book. If you bought a used textbook, you will be required to purchase the access code online for $25. When you first sign up online, you will be asked for a class key. The class key is sfsu 5509 1686. (the class key for the other section is sfsu 2211 4039.)
